UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICROSOFT CORPORATION and ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:22-cv-02880-JSC

DECLARATION OF LEIGH ANN LUCERO IN SUPPORT OF ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION SEEKING IN CAMERA
 TREATMENT OF CERTAIN EXHIBITS
 PURSUANT TO CIVIL L.R. 7-11 AND 79-5

Date: TBA
 Time: TBA
 Dept.: Courtroom 8—19th Floor
 Judge: Honorable Jacqueline S. Corley

1 I, Leigh Ann Lucero, declare as follows:

2 1. I am Associate General Counsel of Gaming at Microsoft Corporation (“Microsoft”). I
3 submit this declaration in support of Microsoft’s Administrative Motion Seeking In Camera Treatment
4 of Certain Exhibits Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11 and 79-5 (“Microsoft’s Administrative Motion”), in
5 connection with exhibits appearing on the parties’ exhibit lists.

6 2. In my role, I have personal knowledge of Microsoft’s use and protection of non-public,
7 highly sensitive, and confidential business information, including the information at issue here.

8 3. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and I can and would competently
9 testify to such facts if called to do so.

10 4. As set forth in Microsoft’s Administrative Motion, some of the exhibits appearing on 11 Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission’s (“FTC”) and Defendants’ exhibit lists contain non-public and 12 highly sensitive information, including, but not limited to, information reflecting confidential internal 13 business data, revenue figures and projections, business strategy and planning, assessments of the 14 competitive landscape, internal decision-making processes, strategic evaluation of forward-looking
15 opportunities, and market share analyses.

16 5. Additionally, as further set forth in Microsoft’s Administrative Motion, some of these
17 exhibits contain non-public and highly sensitive information, including, but not limited to, information
18 reflecting the terms of, and negotiations regarding, confidential agreements that Microsoft does not
19 disclose to third parties.

20 6. This information could be used to injure Microsoft if made publicly available, and it
21 would cause competitive harm to Microsoft if the above information was publicly disclosed. For 22 example, disclosure of this information would give Microsoft’s competitors insight into its strategies,
23 plans, and assessments regarding potential opportunities, and those competitors may alter their strategic 24 plans or offerings if they knew Microsoft’s strategies and plans. Disclosure of this information would 25 also harm Microsoft by allowing its competitors to circumvent the time and resources expended by 26 Microsoft in developing its internal practices and strategies. Disclosure of this information would further
27 harm Microsoft’s negotiating position with its business partners.

7. Microsoft takes robust measures to maintain the confidentiality of all the above-described information, including limiting internal disclosure of some of this information to persons on a need-to-know basis, and does not disclose it publicly. All of this information was designated as confidential pursuant to Section 21 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2, and/or as Confidential pursuant the Protective Order Governing Confidential Material entered on December 9, 2022 (“Administrative Protective Order”) in In the matter of Microsoft Corp. & Activision Blizzard, Inc. Docket No. 9412 (FTC). For these reasons, Microsoft respectfully requests that the Court order the portions of exhibits set forth in Microsoft’s Administrative Motion to be sealed.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Executed on June 20, 2023, in Seattle, Washington.

/s/ Leigh Ann Lucero
